

Institutional Information

Organisation Structure

Institutional Overview

Higher Education Leadership Institute (HELI) is a virtual higher education provider that delivers its courses online through the Canvas Learning Management System (LMS).

All students have access to the HELI Digital Library which contains a comprehensive selection of learning resources related to the Institute's courses.

Students can access support services from their Subject Educator, the Course Coordinator or Student Support Officer depending on individual needs.